Palumbo Guest Speaker At UDC Meeting Thursday

The Appomattox Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met at the County Library on June 21st at 7:30 p.m.

Real Daughter certificates were presented by the president, Mrs. A. J. Zastrow, to two of the new members, Mrs. Ethel Childers and Mrs. Marion Tweedy.

The speaker for the evening was Frank A. Palumbo of Chicago, Ill. Mr. Palumbo, a student of the Civil War, has a collection of War items and pictures valued at Approximately $250,000.00. This collection is considered one of the finest and most complete private collections in the country. At present the exhibit is housed in the library at Carthage College in Kenosha, Wis. A film of the museum was shown at the meeting.

Included in the museum's lithography prints, photographs, documents and maps depict some of the moments and men of the War. There are 27 of the 36 lithography prints by Kurz & Allison which are in full color and show some of the important battles. One of the documents is an authentic copy of the Ordinance of Secession of South Carolina. This is the proclamation that gave birth to the Confederacy.

Portraits of Abraham Lincoln, a steel engraving, Jefferson Davis, Robert E. Lee, Thomas J. (Stonewall) Jackson and J.E.B. (Jeb) Stuart hung along with others at the museum.

One complete showcase is devoted to a collection of Confederate and South Carolina State currency. These range from a five-cent bill to a thousand dollar bill. There is also a $4,500 bill as well as three rare Confederate loan certificates for $500.00.

Mr. Palumbo has been collecting these items for 40 years. He is an associate city planner engineer for Chicago. Mr. Palumbo have been house guests of Mrs. Rachel Lawson.
